About this trip

Experience the Magic of Ireland with the Paddy O' Furniture band 🍀

Welcome to an unforgettable seven-night journey through Ireland, where breathtaking landscapes, rich history, traditional music, and authentic Irish hospitality come together to create a truly memorable experience.

From the charming city of Cork to the scenic beauty of the Wild Atlantic coast and the heart of Ireland, this carefully curated itinerary has been designed to showcase the very best of Ireland's culture, heritage, and natural beauty.

Throughout your adventure, you'll explore iconic attractions including Midleton Distillery, Spike Island, the scenic landscapes of West Cork, the stunning Dingle Peninsula and Slea Head Loop, Teach Siamsa in Finuge, John B. Keane's Pub, and Bunratty Castle. Enjoy a relaxing Shannon River Cruise and experience the warmth of Ireland's famous pubs, traditional music, and welcoming communities.

The highlight of the week is the DOC'S Wild Atlantic Music Festival, where your hosts and other outstanding musicians and entertainers come together for two unforgettable days of live performances in one of Ireland's most unique riverside settings.

Enjoy exceptional Irish cuisine, travel in comfort aboard a luxury coach, and experience the personal attention of your dedicated DOC'S tour hosts and professional driver/guide.

This tour promises lifelong memories, new friendships, and experiences that capture the true spirit of the Ireland.

The Paddy O' Furniture Band is based in St. Petersburg, Florida and has been performing at large festivals and small pubs for 12 years. This will be their third tour of Ireland this time performing as a trio of Kerry O'Reilly, Victoria Henderson and Sean O'Rourke. You can hear their music on Spotify, iTunes, Facebook and YouTube, or visit their website at paddyofurnitureband.com
